New Church Opens Doors Here Today

Opening services at the newly constructed Del Amo Southern Baptist Church at 3915 W. 226th St. have been scheduled today with Sunday school classes for all ages at 9:45 and worship services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The new church building, adjacent to Riviera Hospital, is the first unit of an extensive building to serve the educational and worship needs of the growing congregation, according to Pastor Daniel B. Weaver Jr.

The two-story building provides a sanctuary on the first floor and Training Union facilities for 300 on the second floor.

Midweek services will begin at 7 p.m. with youth groups and workers' training conferences. Prayer services will be held at 7:45 p.m. and choir rehearsals at 8:30.

Investment in the site and the first unit is approximately $110,000 according to the pastor, Kirk Gillett of Torrance was the general contractor for the project.

Formal dedication is being planned for Sunday afternoon, June 30.

RECEIVES PIN . . . Charley H. Knox, 20604 Wood Ave., was presented recently with the Garrett diamond pin by Harry Wetzel, executive vice president of The Garrett Corp.'s AirResearch Manufacturing Division, Los Angeles, upon completion of 15 years service with the company.

Mission Program Tonight

A foreign mission program at the Rolling Hills Covenant Church, 2221 Palos Verdes Drive North, tonight at 7 will feature the Rev. Ralph P. Hanson and the tape recordings of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Carlson.

Mr. Hanson, executive secretary of World Mission for the Evangelical Covenant Church of America, will show slides of his 1962 trip to the Congo. He has toured the world during his 19-year tenure as missionary executive.

Dr. and Mrs. Carlson, who recently left the local church to become medical missionaries in the Congo, will be heard on tape played by David Lueck, who maintains contact with missionaries supported by the local church.

Mrs. Paul Njaa will bring marimba solos as the musical feature of the service.

Gay Travels to Honors Meeting

Prof. Charles Gay will represent Marymount College at the honors program conference held at Boston University during the last week in June.

Honnettes To Attend Convention

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Honnette, of Rolling Hills Covenant Church, will leave tomorrow for Chicago to attend the 78th annual meeting of the Evangelical Covenant Church.

The conference will be held on the campus of North Park College and Theological Seminary under the theme, "Ready to Share."

Mr. Honnette will attend the ministers' workshop preceding the denominational meeting and Mrs. Honnette is a delegate to the national Covenant Women's Auxiliary.

The couple will return June 22.

Job Success To Be YWCA Class Topic

"Success on the job, human relations and how to work best with people," will be the topic Monday morning at a YWCA class in Vocational Guidance for Women.

The speaker will be Albert W. Charles, member of the Torrance Board of Education and Personnel Factors in Redondo Beach. The class will meet from 10 a.m. to noon at the YWCA building, 2320 Carson St.

The course has been directed at women who have been out of the labor market for some time and at employed women who are dissatisfied with their jobs.

MONDAY'S SPEAKER has more than 12 years diversified experience as director of industrial relations with major national firms in high volume consumer goods and job shop manufacturing and been president of the area firm since April of 1960.

Other speakers the class has heard include representatives of social services, hospitals, banking and industry who have covered such subjects as specific job opportunities, general job opportunities, training opportunities and job interviews.

Monday's meeting will be the last in a series of such sessions. Because of wide interest shown, another series of classes will be offered by the YWCA.

Robert Lyons Will Attend Data Seminar

Robert W. Lyons, administrator of Riviera Community Hospital, will attend a special management seminar Wednesday and Thursday in Hawthorne on data processing.

Lyons will attend a program at the National Cash Register plant, which will provide a basic course in data processing.

Miss Virginia Fox, R.N., director of nursing services at Riviera Hospital, will attend a repeat of the program on July 10 and 11.

Letter

(Continued From Page 1) by the City of an offer to make eleven acres of the Municipal Airport available to the Navy. However, the proposed site does not appear useful for our purposes at this time.

I want to thank you again for your assistance in the resolution of this matter. Your strong personal interest and helpful advice has been invaluable in this connection. With kindest personal regards,

Eastcott Gets Set Of Wings

Merrill E. Eastcott Jr., of Torrance was commissioned an Air Force second lieutenant and received his bachelor of science degree at graduation ceremonies Wednesday, June 5, at the U. S. Air Force Academy. President Kennedy delivered the graduation address.

Lieutenant Eastcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmitt Eastcott of 3730 W. 176th St., will be assigned to pilot training at Moody AFB, Ga.

The new Air Force officer, a graduate of Junipero Serra High School, Gardena, received recognition at the academy by being named chief falconer to handle the falcons used as mascots. He majored in engineering science.

Lieutenant Eastcott entered the academy by congressional nomination. His class is the fifth to be graduated by the Air Force school.

Local Artists Take Prizes At Festival

Two Torrance artists were award winners at the recent Wilmington art festival in Banning Park, sponsored by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce.

Stella S. Benneoyer, of 21107 Annie St., won honorable mention in the water color division. Kenneth K. Ford, 810 Joel St., placed second in graphics. Judges included: Robert Adams, Poly High School; Virgil Bullock, Stephen M. White Jr. High School; and Leland Hall, president of Harbor Area Palette Club.

College

4. Soil conditions on the site must be acceptable.

NOTIFICATION by Congressman Cecil R. King that approximately 28 acres of the Naval Annex site on Crenshaw Boulevard north of Sepulveda might be available to the state for college purposes was relayed to each member of the Board of Trustees prior to Friday's San Diego meeting.

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke, who has consistently opposed the Torrance site, described it Friday as sitting atop a "working oil field, adjacent to a tank farm, and split down the middle by a major highway."

He apparently was referring to the Union Oil Co. tank farm at Lomita Boulevard, about a mile south of the Sepulveda and Crenshaw site. Crenshaw Boulevard, which would divide the campus from the student parking area if the city's proposal is adopted, was apparently the major highway referred to.

Students Receive Degrees

Harbor College will grant associate in arts degrees to 122 candidates at the annual graduation exercises June 20, at 6 p.m.

The public is invited to attend the exercise which will be held outside in the college quadrangle. A reception in the campus center will follow the program.

Dr. Frederick P. Woellner, professor emeritus from UCLA, will be the principal speaker. Theme of his talk to the graduates will be "Make Every Stumbling Block a Stepping Stone."

Torrance students who will receive degrees are: Susan E. Anderson, Denny Bridwell, Jack E. Fees, Robert L. Hoppes, Sandra Pierce, Norman G. Rickard, Douglas R. Trombly, and Betty L. Wilson.

Lomita students to graduate are: Judith R. Adams, George T. Adamson, Mary T. Aspell, Mildred R. Dreyer, Edward T. Puerta, and Arline A. Leino.

Two-Class Graduation On Thursday

Graduation ceremonies will be held Thursday for two classes of Resurrection Lutheran School, Hollywood Riviera, according to Principal S. P. Orwell.

At 10:30 a.m. kindergarten students will hold their graduation program. Neil Keyes, president of the board of education, will present graduation certificates to former students of Mrs. Velma Curry.

At 8 p.m. eighth grade students will receive diplomas. Theodore Nelson, treasurer of the board of education, will open the program with scripture and prayer. The Rev. James G. Kallas, of California Lutheran College, will give the commencement address. Student representatives of the class on the program are Brad Gaennie and Kenneth Sullivan.

Cancer Films Available to Local Groups

Two new cancer films are available to the public according to an announcement made today by the local branch of the American Cancer Society.

"I'll choose the High Road," a 15-minute film in color, is aimed at children in the fourth through eighth grades. It asks youngsters the question, "Is Smoking a Habit You Want to Form?"

The American Cancer Society has sent brochures to all schools in the area offering the film for use in their health education programs.

The second film, "A Moment of Discovery," is an 11-minute film in color, devoted to informing the public of the work being done in our nation's laboratories to conquer cancer.

Both films are available for group showing and can be obtained by calling the local office of the American Cancer Society at OR 2-8148.
